services at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, and preach in the same building Sunday evening upon "Synodical Work." The usual preliminary services will not be held.

Dr. Grant Honored.

Gov. Bradley called up Dr. Hugh M.
Grant by telephone Wednesday, and tendered him a surgeon's place in the new fourth regiment. Dr. Grant has been sick and confined to his bed for nearly a week, and, as he would have been compelled to go to Lexington that day, he was forced to let the officer pass. Dr. Grant is a splendid physician and surgeon, and would have been a valuable man in the regiment.

New Deputy Collector.

Collector Yerkes has appointed Millard West, of this city, as deputy collector to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Thomas Austin.
The latter will take the place of assistant assessor under Jas. McCarley.
Mr. West's division consists of Garrard, Madison, Estill, Rockcastle and Jackson. He will enter upon his duties today. He has just reached the age of 21 years and is a young man of exemplary habits, good qualifications and polite.

Notice.

To save cost, call and settle with J. G. SWEENEY.

A great many Garrard county folks will go to High Bridge Sunday to hear Sam Jones.

Call July first and pay your account.
I have indulged you. You must accommodate ME. T. CURREY.

There is no use for me to make prices, just tell me how you can buy them from me and you can have them, maybe for less.

R. A. Stone.

Card of Thanks.

We extend to the members of the Presbyterian church our most sincere thanks for their valuable and appreciated present.

MR. AND MRS. H. N. FAULCONER.

Reduces.

Over at Stanford, the Farmers Bank & Trust Co., decided to reduce its capital from $200,000 to $100,000 instead of going into liquidation. Dr. J.
B. Owsley, cashier, tells the Interior Journal that the $100,000 reduction will be payable to every stockholder July 1, in full, something no other bank has ever done on a reduction of this section.

A Warrior, Bold.

Doc Penny, the clever and popular Stanford dentist, has laid aside his tooth carpenter's equipment and laced on the sword to fight, bleed, and, if necessary, die for his country. Doc has raised the required number of men and will be mustered into the 6th U.
S. Vol. Infantry at Knoxville. We understand he has a good lot of men.
If they are all as good as their commander, Lincoln will surely be proud of the company.

Tyre Logan Harris.

After a few weeks illness Judge T.
L. Harris died Friday night at his home near Lancaster. Judge Harris was in his 74th year. He was a widely-known man, and a good citizen. He lived on his farm, with his two aged sisters, who survive him. Judge Harris never joined any church, but he was an enthusiastic Mason, and this fact goes to show that he was a firm believer in Almighty God. He was liked by everybody and made friends of everyone he met. Rev. Clark, of the Methodist church, held a brief service at the house Saturday at 3 o'clock, after which the Masonic fraternity took charge of the remains and interred them in the family burying ground near the residence.

Guards Replaced.

As stated in last issue, the guards on the Richmond pike were removed by Judge Burns. Present duty went with his attorney to Stanford and brought back an order from Judge Saulley to replace them and it was done. THE RECORD asked Judge Burnside why the guards were taken off and he said that unless guards were on both the Madison and Garrard sides of the Paint Lick bridge, it was no use to keep them on this side, as the bridge, which is a long one, could be fired from the Madison side and the Garrard guards would have no right to shoot at them. As to the other guards, he said they were on duty at a little bridge which could be replaced for $10 or $15. He told the road's attorney that rather than have the county pay four dollars a night for guards for an indefinite time, he would remove them, and, in case the little bridge was burned he would have it replaced at the expense of the county, it being much cheaper for the county than paying a big sum for guards.
The four guards are on duty now, and costs the county $8 a night.

Low Rates to Washington, D. C. and Eastern Cities.

On account of the meeting of the National Educational Convention at Washington, D. C. July 8th to 15th, the Chesapeake and Ohio Ry. will sell round trip tickets to Washington from all stations in Kentucky on July 3rd to 6th inc. at one fare plus $2.00 for the round trip, good to return until July 15th, and subject to an extension of time until August 31st by depositing tickets with the Joint Agent in Washington on or before July 13th.
This is your opportunity to visit Philadelphia, New York and the seashore.
Low-rate side trips can be made from Washington to Old Point Comfort and the Seashore.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Ry. has two limited vestibuled trains each way daily without change. Its scenery is unsurpassed, its train service unequalled, and its several hours quickest from all Central Kentucky points than so-called "Official Routes" via Cincinnati. "A glance at the map will convince you." Avoid delays and changes by taking the Chesapeake and Ohio trains. For sleeping car reservation, or any information write

Strayed or Stolen.

About May 13, from my place 3 miles from Lancaster on New Danville pike, one red heifer, (with black stripes) half alderney, about year and a half old. Any information thankfully received. Mrs. Mary A. Sutton, Lancaster, Ky.

Bank at Paint Lick.

There is considerable talk of establishing a bank at Paint Lick. There is lots of wealth and abundance of push and hustle in that section, and the good people up there once set their heads on having the bank, she will be forthcoming.

Dull Court Day.

Not many farmers left their work to come to town Monday, consequently the crowd was slim, business was dull and the day a flat failure. Probably one hundred cattle were on the market. Butcher stuff brought from 2 to 2 3/4 cents, some yearlings were sold at $25, heifers at from $14 to $17.
Several plug horses offered but none sold.

Fair at Hustonville.

The Hustonville people are hustling around getting premiums for their fair, which will be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Aug. 10, 11 and 12. The following are the officers:
W. Gill Cowan, president; J. K. Banghman, vice president; W. D. Hoeker, secretary; C. W. Adams, assistant secretary, and Janus H. Hoeker, treasurer. The Hustonville people know how to hold a fair and they are always successful.

Popular Young Folks Marry.

Mr. Marshall Archer stole quietly over to Nicholasville Wednesday, and, as prearranged, met Miss Fannie Underwood. The couple drove into Lexington and were married in the parlors of the Phoenix Hotel. The bride resides on Danville street, this city, and is quite popular. She has a splendid education and is a lovely young lady. Mr. Archer is running a meat market in this city, and is a young man of splendid habits and well liked by all. THE RECORD congratulates Mr. and Mrs. Archer, and hopes they may never have cause to regret the step just taken.

Kentucky State Teachers' Special to Washington.

The Chesapeake & Ohio Ry. will run a special limited vestibule train to Washington, leaving Lexington at 6 p. m. Wednesday, July 6th and arriving in Washington at 11:30 a. m., next morning. This train will carry the Kentucky Delegation of Teachers to the National Educational Convention.
A dining car will be attached and meals will be served for 75 cents.
Tickets on sale July 3rd to 6th inclusive at one fare plus two dollars for round trip, good returning until August 31st, if desired.

Return tickets will be good from Richmond, Va., and a very low rate has been made from Washington to Richmond via Steamer and Old Point Comfort, thus giving the only opportunity to visit the most beautiful seashore resort on the Atlantic Coast.
Send in your name for maps, time tables or sleeping car information.
Don't be deceived! The Chesapeake & Ohio Ry. is the only line from Central Kentucky points to Washington, without transfer of cars or depots. Ask your ticket agent or write, George W.
Barney, Div. Pass. Agt., Lexington, Ky.

Jerome Ruble, have been recommended to the board at Frankfort as election Commissioners for Garrard county. They are good men and will perform their duties faithfully.

Hang Out Your Banner.

It has been suggested that the business houses decorate with flags Monday, the 4th. It would be well to revive this oldtime custom. If you have no flags, Crow Dillon has an abundant supply which was furnished him by the government to give away.

July 4th.

The Queen & Crescent Route will sell round trip tickets from all stations to any point on the system, and to principal southern points in general, at a fare and a third for the round trip. Tickets on sale July 2nd, 3rd, and 4th. Good till 7th to return. Ask agents for particulars or see small bills.

Fesses Up.

Will Gill, of the notorious Gill and Story gang, who have been terrorizing Garrard, Madison and Lincoln counties by their daring thefts, was before Judge Burnside and made startling confessions of much of the devilment this gang has been doing.
He implicated Toll Gill and George Story, two near relatives, in all and said they had been operating together for sometime. Gill was held to the grand jury in $400. Warrants have been issued for the rest of the gang.

Deaf and Dumb Rapist.

Kert Macfarland, a deaf and dumb negro boy, was before Judge Burnside Wednesday charged with attempting to rape a white lady named Mrs. Betsy Pointer, near Cartersville. Mrs. Pointer, who is 63 years old, had started to a neighbor's house and the negro attacked her while passing through some bushes. At the trial the negro took a stubborn spell and would furnish no information, either by writing or signs.
He was held to circuit court in $500.00, which could not be given and he was placed in jail.

year for only $1.25.

Dr. W. S. Beazley will leave Monday for Crab Orchard, to be gone two will be in charge of Dr. Myers, of Crab able and the best in the south, we now offer our thanks for the many acts of courtesy and kindness shown

It has been many a day since Lancaster young folks enjoyed as pleasant and beautiful impromptu dance as was the one given at Masonic Hall Tuesday evening. The event was in honor of the visiting young ladies and, although gotten up hurriedly, was complete in every detail. All it lacked was the sweet strains of big-hearted Henry Saxton to make the evening one of loveliness. It is not our purpose to dictate to the young gentlemen, but it does look like it would be economy in the long run, everything considered, to put up a few more dollars and have "Sax," especially when such an array of beautiful dancers as graced the floor

Tuesday evening are to be present. The young ladies who participated in the dance were Misses Lyne Letcher and Betsy Johnson, of Henderson, Pearl Ho'comb, Elizabethtown, Bessie Webb and Letitia Brown, Lexington, Hyden, Lebanon, Mary Miller, Carrie Currey, Altie Marksbury, Bessie Burnside, Maggie Tomlinson, Lan. An agreed case to test the constitutionality of the election commission law is being made. The petition was drawn several days ago to be filed in the Bourbon Circuit Court, and a copy of the document has been forwarded to Attorney General Taylor, who will probably participate in the case. The case is styled Ed D. Patton and G. W. Rowan, County Judge and Sheriff, respectively, vs. Russell Mann, John C. Clay and John Smith, the County Board of Election Commissioners. The petition first sets out the agreed facts as to the passage of the law and the election of the commissioners and their qualification and takes the ground that the act is unconstitutional in that the Legislature had no right to create the office of election commissioners, and, if it did have such right, it had no right to fill the offices by an election by the Legislature, but, if it had the right to fill the office by election, that the election officers were not elected according to law. Attorney General Taylor has given notice that he will agree to the case if they will allow him to file an amendment to the petition. Gen. Taylor requested that they allow him to raise federal questions. This the new board have agreed to, and the Republican State Committee will take the case to the Supreme Court. They will, however, demand that immediate decision be made in the case and will agree to no delay.
